

2009 SRP ETHNIC MINORITY SCHOLARSHIP FACT SHEET

Who is eligible to apply?

To be eligible for the SRP Ethnic-Minority Scholarship, applicants must be members of an under-represented minority group and Arizona residents who will be full-time students (minimum of 12 credit hours per semester) at accredited colleges and university-level educational institutions.

Recipients must have, and maintain, a minimum overall GPA of 3.0 on a 4.0 scale. Preference will be given to students enrolled in degree programs related to SRP's business interests. Current SRP employees are not eligible to apply. Recipients must be legally authorized to work in the U.S.

What is the value of the scholarship?

Scholarship assistance varies from $500 to $3,000 per year. Undergraduate scholarships are funded for up to five years. The term for graduate school scholarships is based on a case-by-case basis.

How may funds be used?

SRP scholarship funds may be used for tuition, fees, required books and supplies, and other legitimate school expenses.

How are the funds administered?

The funds are administered by SRP Human Resources.

A check for the amount of the annual scholarship is mailed to the designated educational institution to be credited to the student's account. The school is instructed to divide the annual amount equally among the number of semesters or quarters in its academic year.

The school also is instructed to withhold the scholarship funds if a student's cumulative grade point average falls below the required minimum or if a student's status is less than full time.

What are the application requirements?

Candidates for scholarship must submit the following documents as the application packet:

1. A completed SRP scholarship application (Dependent and/or Ethnic-Minority).
2. A one-page letter addressed to the Scholarship Committee explaining career goals, reasons for selecting the field of study and how it relates to SRP, and why the student believes he/she should be selected above others.
3. A current resume, including schools attended, employment, community and volunteer activities, school clubs/sports and awards received.
4. Current, official transcripts.
